

Year in Review

July 1, 2021 – June 30, 2022

Dear friends,

On June 30, 2022, we wrapped up another fiscal year for the Crocker Art Museum. This was the first full year our doors have been open since fiscal year 2018–2019, and we have so much to celebrate and be thankful for.

This year, we brought back our Thursday night programming and saw the return of some of our visitor favorites like ArtMix and Jazz Night at the Crocker. New artworks and publications expanded our understanding of art and art history, while elevating the Museum within the field through ground-breaking research and never-before conceived exhibitions like The Candy Store: Funk, Nut, and Other Art With a Kick and Twinka Thiebaud and the Art of the Pose. We also welcomed thousands of new and rejoined members to our Crocker family, bringing our membership base back to pre-pandemic levels. This, and so much more, wouldn't have been possible without your annual support.

The enclosed Annual Report summarizes our most recent fiscal year (July 1, 2021 – June 30, 2022) and reviews the impact the Crocker Art Museum had in our community through exhibitions, collections, programs, and outreach. It also recognizes the members and supporters whose generosity helped make it possible.

Please join me in celebrating all we were able to accomplish together, and keep reading to see how your support helped the Crocker bring people together and connect them in unexpected ways with art, ideas, each other, and the world around them.

With gratitude,

CHELSEA LARSON
Director of Institutional Advancement

Education

In FY22, the true stars in the Crocker Art Museum's orbit were our volunteers. The Museum's volunteers, docents, advisory committees, and Board were steadfast during the heights of the pandemic and upon our return to regular public hours and programming. In a challenging time, volunteers have kept us informed, inspired, and encouraged. We end this fiscal year feeling triumphant as a result of their support.

As we reopened our doors in 2021, staff stood side by side with volunteer docents to welcome back visitors filled with glee. Volunteers helped us stuff envelopes, make calls, served as ushers, and helped to support the Museum in other ways as we got back on our feet again.

Starting in September of 2021 with the Classical Concert series, the Museum began to offer large-scale programs again. From there, Global Rhythms World Music series, Wee Wednesdays, Monster Mash, Baby Loves Art, films, ArtMix, lectures, public tours, panel discussions, and Jazz Nights at the Crocker followed. This was all made possible through the help of volunteers, and we cannot thank this group enough for their willingness, flexibility, and support.

Curatorial

The past year has seen exhibitions celebrating top artists from our region, California, and the world. The summer began with glass and decorative art in Louis Comfort Tiffany: Treasures from the Driehaus Collection, which overlapped with the portraits and landscapes of For America: Paintings from the National Academy of Design. These exhibitions led into the colorful world of French Impressionists with Monet to Matisse: Masterworks of French Impressionism from the Dixon Gallery and Gardens.

After celebrating these artists, the Crocker turned its attention closer to home, focusing on historic 19th-century California prints from the Pope Collection, ceramic masks and bronze figures by Bay Area sculptor Stephen De Staebler, and a group of adventuresome artists who exhibited at Folsom's legendary Candy Store Gallery. The latter shows joined other exhibitions featuring clay, including Hands and Earth: Contemporary Japanese Ceramics and the National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts's (NCECA) annual exhibition, Belonging, both of which were on view in conjunction with NCECA's annual conference held this year in Sacramento. Rounding out the fiscal year, we opened Radiant & Eternal: Chinese Jades from the Permanent Collection, as well as a complementary pair of Thiebaud exhibitions—one celebrating the work of the late Wayne Thiebaud, the other his daughter, Twinka Thiebaud, a renowned artist's model who collaborated with generations of artists and photographers.

ACQUISITIONS

The Crocker's acquisitions—including 1,299 gifts and 42 purchases—spanned hundreds of years and featured the best of local talent and international practitioners. Represented among these acquisitions are numerous works by women and artists of color, acquired through the generosity of key supporters who have made it their goal for the Crocker to be a global destination and a place that reflects the community.

EXHIBITIONS

- Hosted 6 traveling exhibitions, including For America: Paintings from the National Academy of Design, Monet to Matisse: Masterworks of French Impressionism from the Dixon Gallery and Gardens, and Hands and Earth: Contemporary Japanese Ceramics.
- Organized and opened 13 exhibitions, including The Candy Store: Funk, Nut, and Other Art with a Kick, which highlighted the work of artists who put the whimsical, funky, and irreverent aesthetic of California's Central Valley on the art-historical map.

PUBLICATIONS

- Authored and/or contributed to 3 exhibition catalogues.
